BUGET OF NEWS*FROM BIG ISLAND*New Legal Snag is Met*With in Fujiyama's*Case.*STENOGRAPHER'S NOTES MISSING*REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING*AND A TORCHLIGHT*PARADE.*Hilo Railroad Items—Sam Parker*Wanted—Masons Active—*Manager Designs—An-*other Kick

There is likely to be a pretty mess in the Fujiyama case before it is finished. The supreme court has instructed the counsel for Fujiyama, the condemned murderer, to present their case before them upon writ of error instead of habeas corpus. At the time of the trial before the circuit court exceptions were taken to seventeen rulings of that court, and it is upon these that appeal must be made. The record of the trial taken by the stenographer must be in the hands of the supreme court. At the time of the trial McMahon was court stenographer. His notes have never been transcribed, and how they are to be brought as evidence into the supreme court is a puzzle, as McMahon is no longer in the country, and no other stenographer could probably read his notes with any degree of certainty. So it looks as if Fujiyama would have to "hang on to the rope" after all.

Republican Meeting.

A fairly well attended and moderately enthusiastic mass meeting of republicans was held at the fish market on Wednesday evening. It was preceded by a torchlight procession with brass band accompaniment by way of advertisement. The speakers of the evening were Judge Gilbert F. Little, Carl S. Smith, A. B. Loebenstein, Ben Naphthaly, James Mattson and J. D. Lewis. Colonel Little exposed very clearly the falsity of Wilcox's pretensions relative to the liberalizing of the Organic Act at the last session of congress.

May Return to Hilo.

Says the Tribune: Dr. E. H. Hutchinson, formerly of Hilo but more recently established in Honolulu, came up by the Kinau for a ten days' trip in this vicinity. Dr. Hutchinson has landed interests in Kuumana which he will look after while here. "Hilo is getting to be just the proper place," said the doctor to a Tribune representative. "I'm not at all sure but I shall gather up my forepicks and buzz saws when I get back to Honolulu and come up here again to reside."

Want Sam Parker.

The friends of Sam Parker in Hilo have written to him urging him to return by the Kinau and do more stump work. There seems to be an impression that the worst through the districts too hurriedly, and he has therefore been asked to return for a more extended tour in Kona and Puna districts.

Hilo Masons Active.

The Masonic fraternity of Hilo are figuring on the erection of a fine building which shall serve as a home for various lodges now established here. The Hilo Masonic Hall Association is now being formed to take steps to erect a building on Waihanu street to cost not less than $20,000. Subscriptions in almost the amount needed have been received already. That a project of this sort can be put through speaks well, not only for the active life of Masonry in Hilo, but also for the general progress of the town as a whole.

Another Kick.

The beauty of the Inter-Island mail service is shown by the fact that foreign mail received in the regular course of events by the Kinau was of the same San Francisco date as papers received by the Zealandia directly from the coast, two days before. It is this kind of thing that helps build up business in a community.—Hilo Tribune.

Manager Designs.

J. H. McDonough has resigned his position as manager of the Hilo hotel. It is not known as yet who will be appointed to succeed him. Mr. McDonough has many friends in Hilo and they will be sorry to see him leave the town.

Got the Drop on Us.

The Honolulu papers devote less space to the destructive flood which recently befell that city than they do to an unusually heavy dew in "the Rainy City." Too bad it came along with the Shriners. Honolulu is such a nasty village when it rains.—Hilo Tribune.

Hilo Notes.

Ben Naphthaly, station agent at Olan for the Hilo railroad, was in Hilo on Wednesday, helping out the republicans in their campaign work.

The Hilo railroad is about to erect a number of $2,000 cottages at Waialeale, near the race track, for occupancy by employees of the road.

F. C. Le Bloude, formerly of Hilo, is now located in San Francisco, where he will probably remain for some time. The engagement is announced of Captain John Fitzgerald of Hilo to Miss Eulalia Danphing of Eureka, California.

Vote the straight republican ticket.

When you cannot sleep for coughing it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Territory of Hawaii.

NEWS OF
THE TOWN*Vote the straight republican ticket.

Miss Eio Murakami, who arrived from Kobe, Japan, in the Hongkong Maru Saturday, will soon be married to T. Masuda, agent for the Nippon Immigration company.

Continue prosperity by voting the*straight republican ticket.

Increasing steamers report copious rains all over Maui. So heavy have been the rains that irrigation is not necessary for some time. Maliko gulch is running a large stream.

The members of Company B. N. G. H. will enjoy a smoker at the armory on Hotel street tonight. Election of officers will be held. The boys expect to have a big time.

Vote first for Parker, then for all*others on the republican ticket.

It is rumored that the hackmen of the city and particularly those of 113 and 319 stands will give a big parade soon in celebration of the dismissal of Haman from the police force.

Be a genuine republican. Be a straight*ticket republican.

A "Neighborhood Settlement" is being organized at Wailuku for the Chinese at the corner of Main and Market streets. The "Settlement" will include a kindergarten and a church.

A vote for other than the straight*republican ticket is a vote lost.

Captain C. B. Cottrell has resigned his position as commanding officer of company B. N. G. H. He leaves today for Maui to take a position as master mechanic with the Kahului Railway company.

A Japanese steamer on his way to Waiman, Kauai, on Friday last fell from his wagon and was run over, one of the front wheels passing over his head. When the Iwaland left it was thought that the man would die.

Vote first for Parker, then for all*others on the republican ticket.

James F. Morgan was surveying the town from the seat of a gorgeous new buggy yesterday. The vehicle bears several signs that tell of the business of the genial auctioneer and also that his headquarters are on Queen street.

Vote first for Parker, then for all*others on the republican ticket.

H. E. Cooper, Wm. E. Rowell and Wray Taylor made a tour of inspection yesterday afternoon of all the polling places in the city. They arranged for all work necessary to be done to get the places in shape for election day.

H. Sakura of the Yokohama Specie bank and his wife arrived from Yokohama in the Hongkong Maru. Mr. Sakura will take the place of Mr. Ikeda who has been treasurer of the bank for many years past and who returns to Japan.

There was a special meeting and reception in the Japanese Methodist church, Kukui street, last evening in honor of Rev. E. Tokimasa and Rev. and Mrs. T. Takahashi. The former is to leave shortly for Lahaina and the latter have been assigned to Ala.

straight republican ticket.

Mrs. F. W. Hankey, wife of the well known attorney, arrived from the northwest Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Hankey will reside for the present at the Waikiki Inn. Throughout the northwest Mrs. Hankey is well known as a writer of short stories and verse under the nom de plume of Marie Winslow. This is her first visit to Hawaii.

W. Rickard Hurt.

W. Rickard of Honolulu was accidentally shot in the foot while riding horseback on the plantation last week. He was out hunting and in some way his gun, which he was carrying pointed down, was discharged, the shot entering his right foot and making a terrible wound. He was alone at the time and had to ride five miles for medical assistance.

Children, Photographs.

Perhaps the most trying part of the photographic operator's life is the handling of children, yet Miss Haskins, with infinite skill, seems to find no difficulty in the matter.

It is surprising the variety of poses the little ones are led into by her skillful handling, all so natural and delightful.

Miss Haskins has a style of her own and her efforts are highly appreciated by those who are competent to judge.

King Bros. are to be congratulated on having secured her services in their new enterprise.
